

How Much WiFi Do You Need?

Internet speed, or a lack thereof, can greatly impact the quality of your online experience. Is your current Internet connection still meeting your needs? The right speed for you will depend on how many users are in your household and what they typically do online. Take a look at these general guidelines to help you decide:

- ◆ How many WiFi users in your household?
- ◆ What do they do online?
- ◆ Does everyone use WiFi at the same time?
- ◆ How many WiFi enabled devices do you use in your home? How do you use them? Here is a small list of WiFi enabled devices:
